Arise was part of what I call my "Extreme Make Over; Soul Edition:" A season of transformation in which I came to know God more deeply and clearly. As a result, I have a new sense of identity and a much greater vision of what it means to live out my faith. — Hannah Voetberg

I recommend Arise for anyone interested in growing in "the grace and the knowledge of God." Videos and books provide challenging thoughts that enhance freedom. And that freedom is nurtured in an atmosphere of students seeking growth in God through fellowship with one another. — Tom Forsythe

Arise was great!! It was a banquet of life giving food for my soul. I was nourished through the teachings and the prayer that was given. I am very thankful for having the opportunity to participate in it. — Rachael Baremore
